

Become a Member Today!

Annual dues - $100 for residents/fellows
Obtain application form at <http://sbas.net/join/>
Current CV and Bibliography

Letter of reference from the Chairman of your department
Letter of reference from a faculty member in your department familiar with your academic accomplishments
Current Photo-headshot

Please email your application and letters to info@sbas.net or mail them to:

SBAS Central Office
Attn: Lovie Brown
EVMS-Dept. of Surgery
825 Fairfax Avenue Ste 610
Norfolk, VA 23507

Resident Committee Members

Lara Oyetunji, Chair
Linda Barry, Senior advisor
Nathaniel McQuay
Valentine Nfonsam
Marcel Tafen
Bobby Robinson
George Akingba
Wade Douglas
Ekene Onwuka

Want to get involved?

Please contact:
Lara Oyetunji
oyetunji@uw.edu

THE SOCIETY OF BLACK ACADEMIC SURGEONS

IN JOINT SPONSORSHIP WITH

THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA AT BIRMINGHAM
AND THE UAB DEPARTMENT OF SURGERY

The Resident Committee welcomes you to the Resident Program
at the 28th Annual Meeting

Resident Committee Activities at the 28th Annual Scientific Session

Committee meeting

Saturday, April 28

6:30 a.m. – 7:30 a.m.

All interested parties are welcome

Resident Symposium

Saturday, April 28

2:40 p.m. – 4:15 p.m.

Panel Discussion

The value of having a mentor and a sponsor

- Dr. LD Britt

How to thrive in surgical residency and fellowship

- Dr. Christa Grant

Research productivity during training

- Dr. Henri Ford

How to secure your first academic position

- Dr. Steve Stain

Moderator

- Dr. Linda Barry

Please refer to the program for meeting locations

Membership benefits for Residents

Education

Stay on the cutting edge of the surgery profession.

Access to SBAS resources designed to help you prepare for and be successful in surgical residency.

Attend the SBAS Annual Scientific Assembly at a discounted cost with advanced registration.

Enter the Resident Papers Competition during the SBAS Annual Scientific Assembly.

Access opportunities to apply for Resident Research Scholarships.

Engagement and Fellowship

Join SBAS to influence surgical care and network with fellow colleagues on our exclusive social media platforms.

Advocate for the surgery profession through the SBAS Advocacy Committee.

Lend your expertise and skills to further advance the mission of SBAS.

Professional Development and Exclusive Opportunities

Participate in SBAS members-only activities of interest to you.

Learn of exclusive research and clinical rotations at the nation's premier surgical centers.

Participate in SBAS Leadership Committees

Value

Take advantage of savings through SBAS Resident members-only discount programs.

Legacy Development

Join fellow colleagues and surgical leaders to influence surgical care, address health care disparity, and network with professionals at the local, national, and international level.